EDDC BUDGET CUTS WORRY

By BEN MIDDLETON

ben@tindlenews.co.uk

RESIDENTS in Honiton could be set to lose out as East Devon District Council (EDDC) announces proposed cuts to its budget.

In a document seen by Pulman's View, EDDC is proposing to slash the amount of money it spends on services in Honiton and across the rest of east Devon.

This will include cuts in street cleansing, toilet cleansing and grounds maintenance.

The cuts could also mean that there would be reduced support for Honiton's Glen Regeneration Project.

As part of its consultation process the district council has carried out an online survey that asked residents for their views about the proposed cuts.

A spokesman for EDDC said: "We asked residents what they thought about the proposed changes to EDDC's budget in 2010/2011. A questionnaire detailing the possible budgetary changes was designed and placed on the council's website.

"153 residents completed the questionnaire. A list of 14 options were given to respondents and they were asked to select the three options that they most agreed with, and the three options they most disagreed with.

"The results were presented to elected members at a service planning and budget task and finish forum on Monday, January 18th, for their consideration."

According to the figures posted on the district councils website 41 per cent of people who took part in the survey agreed with EDDC stopping the supply of flower displays, flower beds and plant containers and 18 per cent of residents agreed with increasing the standard car park charge at district council owned car parks by 10p.

However, the figures also showed strong opposition to the plans to reduce street cleaning in the summer months and stopping grants to the Citizens Advice Bureau.

Honiton Town Council was due to discuss the implications of the budget cuts at a policy meeting as this newspaper went to press yesterday.

Anti-social drive notice

A MAN from Dunkeswell has been issued with a warning notice by Honiton police.

The notice was issued following reports of the man driving in a careless and anti-social manner on Monday, January 18th. The man must now drive according to the laws of the road for the next 12 months. If he is caught driving dangerously within that time he could have his vehicle seized.

A spokesman for Honiton police said: "This is an extremely useful tool for us when combating both the antisocial elements of some people's driving, such as noise, along with more dangerous aspects such as speeding."

"The information we have now gathered will now go onto the National Police Computer so all officers will be aware of the warning should he be seen in similar circumstances in the future."

Three-venue Scouts' sale

THE scouts jumble sale in Ottery St Mary is set to open its doors at 1.30pm on Saturday, January 30th.

It is being held across three venues in the town — The Institute, Coleridge Pre-school and the Old Boys' School — and all funds raised will go to the scout groups in Ottery.

A book fair is being held at the Coleridge Pre-school before the jumble sale from 11am and a professional auctioneer will be on hand at The Institute from 2.45pm to oversee a 100 lot auction.

Admission is free and the organisers say everyone is welcome to attend.

The jumble sale will also take place the following Saturday, February 6th.

School rank

HONITON Community College has been ranked as one of the top 40 schools in Devon.

Figures show that the school is ranked 38th, out of 47 schools, not 42nd as had been previously reported.

Glenn Smith, principal of the college, said he was pleased with the results and that the school would continue to improve as it bids to become one of the top performing schools in the country.

Rotters extends its service across area

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@hindlenews.co.uk

A GARDEN waste collection service covering towns and villages across Pulman's Country is set to be expanded.

Otter Rotters, based at Fenny Bridges, near Ottery St Mary, currently offers the service to residents living in Dunkeswell, Feniton, Honiton, Newton Pophelford, Ottery St Mary, Payhembury, Sidbury, Sidford, Sidmouth, Talaton, Tipton St John, West Hill and Whimple.

The not-for-profit group has now joined forces with East Devon District Council (EDDC) to extend the scheme into Axminster, Seaton, Colyton and Colyford.

The service runs fortnightly and is offered on a pay per use basis, with all garden waste being recycled.

EDDC say the partnership will enable the company to continue its investment in community activities and that they will provide Otter Rotters with long term support to provide additional employment, training and volunteer opportunities.

David Cox, EDDC portfolio holder for StreetScene, said: "This partnership makes both environmental and economic sense. It will enable Otter Rotters to provide employment for local people, as well as fulfilling our commitment to a more environmentally sustainable way of life."

"I hope, if this extended scheme proves as popular as I think it will, that we will be able to roll-out the service to all parts of east Devon."

Mandy Jennings, of Otter Rotters, added:

"I am delighted that EDDC has recognised and shown its support for this successful community enterprise."

"The scheme recognises that garden waste is a valuable commodity that should not end up in landfill sites and redirects it back to be used for growing local produce and providing opportunities for horticultural activities."

"I know our colleagues at EDDC are committed to supporting local community action initiatives and, by diverting organic materials from landfill, we can go some way to alleviating the problem of pressure on landfill sites."

For more information about the garden waste service visit www.eastdevon.gov.uk or the Otter Rotters website at www.otterrotters.co.uk.

College efforts for Haiti funds

HONITON Community College held a non-uniform day on Friday, January 22nd, to raise funds for the Haiti Earthquake Appeal.

Alison Rutherford, Every Child Matters coordinator for the college, said prior to the event: "As a community college, we feel it is our duty to help ease the suffering in Haiti and donate as much money as possible to the Disaster Emergency Committee."

"We need your help to raise as much money as possible, as quickly as possible."

"We are proposing to hold a non-uniform day on which students can wear their own clothes in exchange for a donation. We are also proposing that we act as a collection point for parents and their carers to donate as much as they can to help ease the Haitians' suffering."

"We are encouraging all staff to forgo any treats and snacks this week and to donate the money they would spend instead. We will have collection buckets in the dining hall all this week and will also be encouraging staff, as well as students, to donate any change they have."

'Tax refund' calls bogus

ALERT residents have told East Devon District Council (EDDC) about bogus phone callers offering a council tax refund.

A number of people have been phoned by people claiming to work for the council who were asking for bank card details.

An EDDC spokesperson explained: "EDDC has been approached by a number of residents who have been targeted, initially by a man with a foreign accent, followed up by a call from a lady with an English accent."

"In all cases, the callers claimed to be from the council, saying that the resident may be eligible for a council tax refund."

"The bogus callers appear to know the name and address of the victims' banks, and they ask for their three-digit credit card security code number before explaining they would be sent a form to complete, to process the claim."

"All the residents who have contacted the council became suspicious and ended the call without divulging the security number."

Councillor Andrew Moulding, EDDC Portfolio Holder Resources, added: "If you are contacted by someone that you are unsure about, please don't be tricked under any circumstances."

"Officers at EDDC do telephone customers, but would never ask them for a credit card security number over the telephone. If you are in any doubt, finish the call straight away."

The council is asking all residents to be vigilant and not to divulge private information. Residents are urged to report any suspect calls to EDDC Revenues Manager Libby Jarrett on 01395 517 446 or by e-mailing revenues@eastdevon.gov.uk.

Crimestoppers can also be called on 0800 555 111.

Driver's actions lead to recycle truck modification

By ANDERS LARSSON
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A SEATON man's actions have played a part in the modification of recycling vehicles.

At the end of last year, Frank Dutton was driving from Seaton to Sidford when he saw plastic bottles flying off a recycling vehicle in front of him operating on behalf of East Devon District Council (EDDC).

Mr Dutton said last week: "Every so often, plastic bottles flew out of the side of the lorry whipped out by the wind.

"This happened for mile after mile. The driver was probably unaware of what was happening but its likely that the container was considerably less full by the time he reached his destination."

"The recycling department was informed of the incident but the bottles are still there and are possibly being added to every week."

"This is not a criticism of the recycling teams, they do a great job, but something could be done to prevent this happening."

"What's the point in making efforts to recycle our plastic bottles if they end up being distributed around our countryside?"

But the good news is that an EDDC officer got in touch with Mt Dutton by e-mail shortly afterwards.

The officer, who copied in Pulman's View, thanked Mr Dutton for his report and said: "We have addressed this problem with our contractors and are having sheeting fitted inside the small number of vehicles that this effects."

"The contractors are themselves collecting any plastic bottles that may have fallen off the vehicle/s."

"I will instruct them to clear any from the location you have stated."

Mr Dutton said that, as long as someone is despatched to pick up the bottles, he is happy with the reply.

He added: "I'm quite happy with the collection service per se, but ending up with bottles all over the place is not the idea."

Crews attend car on ravine

FOUR people escaped to safety after a vehicle ended up in a precarious position on the A3052 near Tower Services Seaton.

The accident happened just before 6am on Monday, January 25th.

A statement issued by the fire and rescue service didn't explain what had caused the accident, but stated: "When the crew arrived they found the car in a precarious position over a ravine."

"It was confirmed that all persons were out of the vehicle and safe. The crew made the vehicle safe using a tirlor winch and assisted with lighting. The area was made safe before leaving the scene."

Sex offences investigation

FOLLOWING an investigation by East Devon CID, based at Honiton, a 16-year-old boy has been charged with three sexual offences allegedly committed in 2009.

The investigation was sparked by an alleged incident in Colyton in August last year.

He has been granted bail to appear at Exeter Youth Court on February 10th.

Inn submits skittle centre application

AN Axminster pub could become a 'skittle centre' by adding another alley.

The Lamb Inn has submitted a planning application for permission to demolish the current skittle alley and build a two-storey extension comprising two alleys on the ground floor and three en-suite letting rooms above.

The applicant's design and access statement says: "The applicant wishes to diversify, and to be able to offer a greater range of facilities and services in a more family-orientated establishment."

"The proposals increase the footprint of the buildings by approximately 74 square metres."

"All fenestration is on the front and rear walls looking out on to the car park and the rear garden, and the proposals should not result in any additional loss of privacy or amenity to any neighbouring properties."

The issue of potential noise is mentioned in the applicant's statement.

It is stated that specific measures will almost certainly have to be based on recommendations of a specialist consultant, and envisaged measures include acoustic, double-glazed windows and sound resisting doors, to mention only a few.

Lamb Inn is the second Axminster pub to submit a skittle-related planning application in a short period of time.

The Castle's application to build an extension for a skittle alley has already gained support from Axminster Town Council's planning committee although, it is understood, not unanimously.

Both applications will be decided by East Devon District Council in due course.

Police and cadets' joint community event is success

SEATON police and the Axe Valley Police Community Cadets held a successful event at the recent Seaton Community Fair.

During the day members of the force and youngsters from the cadets were present in Seaton Town Hall.

They were able to hand out information and advice and the day was also used as a recruitment drive for the cadets.

More than 30 members of the public signed up to the community messaging scheme and three potential cadet recruits where given more information and application forms.

Anyone who like more information about the cadets should contact PCSO Bolsover on 01297 626700. Alternatively, an application form can be picked up from Seaton Police Station.

Youngsters aged between 13 and 16 and living in Seaton, Branscombe, Colyton, Colyton, Beer, Axmouth, Northleigh, Southleigh, Farway and Combpayne are eligible to join the cadets.

Rotary 50th celebrations

ALMOST 100 Rotarians and guests gathered to celebrate the 50th anniversary of The Rotary Club of Axminster.

The celebration came in the shape of a dinner-dance at The Victoria Hotel, Sidmouth, on Saturday, January 16th, attended by 94 people.

Rotary District Governor Jeremy Tucker presented the 50th Charter Certificate to Axminster Club President Michael Garratt.

The latter said: "It is a privilege to be president for such a committed, lively and enjoyable club during its 50th anniversary year."

Axminster Rotary Club entered its anniversary year having raised a record £16,400 for charity.

Among the good causes were Rotary's own Shelterbox project and the drive to eliminate polio from every country in the world.

Help for Heroes, the Royal British Legion, the Cumbrian flood appeal and local charities also benefited.

Eight Shelterboxes were flown to disaster zones to help people survive floods and earthquakes — and another £2,000 has just been raised for a further four Shelterboxes.

Rotarian John Hewson said: "Much of this work would not be possible without the support and generosity of the local people."

College sale

AXE Valley Community College, Axminster, will be the scene of a jumble sale from 2pm-4pm on Saturday, January 30th.

The proceeds will be split between the college's Parents, Teachers and Friends Association (PTFA) and Exeter Leukaemia Fund. Donations of jumble can go to the college reception or call 01297 630151.

Youths urged to attend meet to discuss new centre option

YOUNGSTERS in Seaton are being encouraged to attend a town meeting in Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, January 30th.

The meeting will discuss options for a youth centre in the town including the possibility of using the former Winstons pub as a community and youth centre.

Sandra Semple, chairman of Seaton Town Council, said: "At the town meeting to consider the former Winstons pub as a community and youth centre we would particularly like to see young people attending."

"May I make it clear that the request to consider the pub came from members of the public and not from town councillors."

Mrs Semple added that the town council has already been given the Elizabeth Road playing fields by East Devon District Council to use for children and young people's projects.

She said: "If, after a town meeting, people were shown to prefer Winstons to the playing fields area then we might be able to consider it, but it would then require a full structural survey and consultation with Devon County Council who have responsibility for providing youth workers and who would not provide them if they considered the building unsatisfactory."

The town mayor also said that Seaton Town Council only has enough money in the pot to finance one project and that Winstons is due to come up for auction at the end of February.

She said: "Seaton Town Council has finance for only one project and it may be that, given the amount of time needed to put finances and project planning in position, even if Winstons did emerge as the first choice, it could well be sold before we can even consider it, as we gather that it may be coming up for auction in late February."

"There is no foregone conclusion, and I stress that town councillors did not take the lead on this and they have given no views on it so far, it is simply a request from members of the public."

"A section of the community responded to wild and unfounded rumours about the last property considered by the town council. We do not want to see this happening again. Our young people must have something, somewhere, and we must make a decision about where to locate a building for them as soon as we can — with their input as well as that of the adult community."

Drop in town's crime for 2009, police report

By BEN MIDDLETON
ben@tindlenews.co.uk

CRIME in Honiton is down by almost 11 per cent according to figures released by the town's police force.

The figures show that a 10.9 per cent drop was recorded in Honiton last year compared to 2008.

Overall in 2009 there was a 37 per cent drop in vehicle crime, a 46 per cent drop in burglaries, a three per cent drop in violent crime and a 1.5 per cent drop in criminal damage offences.

However, the results did show a 44 per cent increase in drug offences.

Sergeant Martin Burrow, of Honiton police, said he was pleased with the results and added that the increase in drug offences could be down to the fact that Honiton police are repeatedly targeting known drug users.

Speaking to this newspaper Sergeant Burrow said: "These are a tremendous set of figures for Honiton and show the hard work and commitment provided by your local police. This has been by both responding to issues as they arise and by working proactively to target known offenders to reduce reoffending."

"As we know a lot of crime is generated by those addicted to drugs in order for them to fund their habit, however, by ensuring we robustly and proactively police these people and those who supply them we reduce the associated crime such as burglaries and vehicle crime.

"It is therefore reassuring for me to see an increase of 44 per cent in drug offences. Honiton does not have a large drug problem when compared to other similar sized towns however, there is a very small minority of people who use drugs within the town.

"A 44 per cent increase shows that we are repeatedly targeting these people which along with our other initiatives produce the other reductions in crime."

County council to set up pothole inspection plan

DEVON County Council is setting up an emergency inspection regime to identify and repair potholes caused by the recent freezing temperatures.

The council will have special teams from its contractor SWH looking for potholes and defects on as much of Devon's 8,000 mile road network as possible.

They will complete an emergency intermediate repair to potholes as they find them over the next few weeks, starting with the busier main roads.

As the big freeze was so prolonged, it is expected that the estimated repair bill will exceed that of last year, which was around £11million over and above that of a normal winter.

In sub-zero temperatures, road surfaces become brittle which can result in cracking or existing cracks can worsen, chippings can loosen and potholes are formed.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highways and Transportation, said: "This has been the harshest winter for 30 years and as the snow and ice disappears, we are seeing potholes forming on our roads which are going to be a problem.

"We will now be starting a rapid response programme to get to grips with the potholes caused by this latest bout of snow, ice and freezing temperatures.

"We won't be able to get to every defect straight away because of the sheer size of our network, so we still need people to be our eyes and ears."

Potholes and safety defects on the county's roads can be reported online at www.devon.gov.uk or by calling 0845 155 1004.

LADIES GIVE INSPIRATION TO SHOPPERS AND EDITORS

In the editor's shoes

KATE ERIN MEW

Boutique call

IT'S not every day you receive a special invitation to a ladies' boutique for free pampering sessions and clothing make-over — and in Axminster of all the places.

So when I got this 'boutique call' to visit mARmaLaDe's new premises for its launch on Saturday, I had to say yes.

I tried to push away the question of why the mARmaLaDe people thought I needed a make-over in the first place and concentrated, instead, on the fun factor.

mARmaLaDe owner Lisa Fifer decided to move from the original premises in Chard Road to a new shop in West Street in the centre of town to increase the footfall into the women's clothing shop (see story on page 10).

I have to admit, I had only visited the original shop on two occasions and, although it was situated in a lovely old building, it was a little too out of the way to just pop into if I was in town. Exactly the reason Lisa decided to relocate.

As I walked through the churchyard on Saturday afternoon towards the new mARmaLaDe for my appointment, I was utterly astounded at what I saw.

A vision before me — what a shop front! Mannequins dressed in gorgeous fabrics draped inside the glass really enhances the drive or walk through the town centre.

I was already excited and when I walked through the door, the new shop, I have to say, looked fabulous.

Lisa and manager Lucy Whittaker clearly have a flair for fashion and design, making the shop floor a joy to wander around and the two floors each offer some fantastic garments at realistic prices.

On my arrival, I was whisked up to the third floor, which will be used as office and storage space later, and treated to a lovely manicure by Reflections Hair and Beauty Salon's Louise Hallett, who had accompanied other therapists from The Awareness Centre during the launch day to provide visitors with free treatments.

After my nails were beautifully shaped and painted, Lucy took me down to the second floor where she 'dressed me up' in some outfits and we discussed body shapes and what cuts of clothes suit which shapes.

I tried on a gorgeous midnight blue longline, viscose tunic with some high quality 'jeggings' (denim-look leggings) and some fabulous shoes. The prices were a nice surprise, particularly the tunic which, although viscose fabric felt more like silk.

I had a great time and it's so good to see a thriving and growing smart business in this economy, brightening up the town which will, I am sure, accompany River Cottage and Trinity House in enticing more shoppers from outside the town to come and browse.

The two young women, Lisa and Lucy — both local girls and former Colyton Grammar School students — are an inspiration, making such a huge success of their business.

So, in all, the Saturday afternoon I was supposed to be at home working, I was in fact playing dress-up in some amazing shoes which, no doubt, will soon be the editor's.

◆ FASHION boutique mARmaLaDe, in Axminster, has moved to new premises opposite the Minster church in the centre of town, and on Saturday morning the mayor of Axminster, Ron Jones, cut the ribbon to officially open the new shop. Ladies' boutique finds a new extended home mARmaLaDe made the short trek from Chard Street to West Street and welcomed customers to the new premises on Saturday, January 23rd.

AN Axminster boutique moved in to a new home over the weekend.

It may have been a short trek but it is hoped the new location will improve footfall.

Manager Lucy Whittaker said: "We really love the shop [the old one], we just wish it was more central.

"We want to increase footfall by being more in the town."

mARmaLaDe owner Lisa Fifer has previously said that people visiting the town don't always make their way down Chard Street, and Lucy said: "They seem to get to the corner [at George Hotel] and stop.

"Obviously some do come up here and we have a loyal customer base, but we would like to be in the thick of it."

mARmaLaDe has moved in to premises, previously occupied by a computer shop, with three floors.

Two of them will be shop space and the third will act as stockroom and office.

The first day of trading in the new premises saw Axminster mayor Ron Jones cut a ribbon to declare the shop officially open and a team from radio station Heart FM also made an appearance.

The mARmaLaDe team was busy giving makeover suggestions and fashion tips.

The Awareness Centre also offered customers manicures and complementary therapy tasters free of charge.

Support for construction

CONSTRUCTIONSKILLS has extended its support for construction apprentices as part of the Apprenticeship Matching Service, which will mean that even more employers across Devon are eligible to receive £1,000 for taking on an apprentice who has lost their previous position due to the recession.

The offer is open for all apprentices who have:

- completed college induction training
- registered for their framework with Construction Awards Alliance or other approved body
- completed a period of site training to allow collection of work based evidence.

ConstructionSkills launched the Apprenticeship Matching Service early in 2009 to help employers retain their apprentices or, when this was not possible, match displaced apprentices with employers in the area. The scheme was initiated in response to the high numbers of young apprentices in the South West being made unemployed as a direct result of the tough economic conditions felt by the construction industry.

For further information, please visit www.cskills.org.

In search of family info

EDITOR — I am researching my family history and hope that your readers may be able to help.

My maternal great aunt, Ada Susannah Burrage 1887-1978, left Norfolk years ago and none of the family knew where she had gone.

I have found out that she died in May 1978 in Honiton Hospital and that her last known address was 16 Cridlake, Axminster.

She was a Land Army Girl (retired).

I would love to find out more about her life.

Why, oh why can't the do gooders leave well alone?

EDITOR — With reference to Mark Hayes's comment in respect of Roundball Hill, I wholeheartedly agree. One of the natural nature sites ruined as far as wildlife which left a long time ago. Why, oh why can't the council, health and safety and other do-gooders leave well alone?

Another natural nature site that has also been ruined, the ongoing nature reserve and children's play areas in the field by the river off Battishorne Way. This was, until last year, a natural nature reserve in its own right where one could see wild flowers, butterflies, frogs, birds, deer, badgers and pheasants. Sadly the wildlife has abandoned this field due to the monstrosities that have been erected. Built in white wood which does not tone in with the countryside. At present the only way to describe this once-natural field is an eyesore.

More work has yet to be done and mainly it is to accommodate youngsters many who have no respect for their surroundings and seem to spend their visits shouting and screaming and causing vandalism, hence no wildlife.

Nature reserve no way. There are to be five play areas within this area. Ask yourself, when did noisy children and wildlife go together?

I and many people who live in this area are appalled at the utter disrespect of our birds and animals. But, as we've seen, they come way down the list of necessities as far as the council is concerned.

We've already had a rave plus use of drugs and over 20 alcoholic bottles scattered about the field by older teenagers, also graffiti, in fact obscenities written on the white wood structures. Yet another joy to behold in the years to come.

I am not anti-children but have to admit I prefer wildlife as it goes about its life quietly. In fact you'd never know it was there.

Chance for residents to work together

EDITOR — As a private individual. In my opinion and from my own experiences, the present Seaton town councillors — of which I am one — like many previous town representatives, work very hard for the future of Seaton.

They do what they can within their confines. Both historically, and recently, decisions have been made by councils with greater authority, against local needs and wishes — leaving local representatives powerless.

These actions (too numerous to mention) have long-term implications, working against the natural assets of this unique town.

Dealing with these issues from both inside and outside the bureaucratic system is frustrating.

Frustration leads to anger, blame and demoralisation — all natural but negative responses.

Seaton is very fortunate because we benefit from such a diverse mix of residents (new, established, young and old) who care passionately about where they live.

We cannot 'undo' the past, but we can make the best of what is upon us. United we have the skills and resolution to be constructive, to find positive aspects upon which we can work together.

This is an opportunity for Seaton and all of its residents to work together to make our town an even happier, more cohesive community.

My new year's wish for Seaton is that we all find good within each other, and common ground to work from, reversing the downward spiral and promoting a truly unique and united community. Happy New Year.

Store's plans, protection of birds: discuss

EDITOR — This letter is written to open the subject about the protection of birds, when Tesco moves on to the designated site in Harbour Road.

Maybe someone could tell me when the extraordinarily long roadside hedge was actually planted by it along the road?

This might have some bearing on the extent of protection awarded to it, and the local bird population.

Every spring, loud amazing chorus of birdsong is emitted, all along that hedge.

It is teeming with literally hundreds of small nesting birds, along the north side of the road.

The other day I was reminded as I passed on the opposite side of the road and listened, I decided to hear even better, I crossed the road to hear them. They went quite quiet, I think they knew they were attracting my attention.

LYME ROAD, AXMINSTER

An Axminster based clinic's 3D Optical Laser Foot scanner and Computer Diagnostic System, some of the most advanced in the world, form part of an innovative service to alleviate foot pain.

Feet can cause us real pain and we may not even know it!

We only have one pair of feet and they take us everywhere so it pays to take good care of them, but most of us don't give our feet a second thought.... that is until they hurt!

Once our feet are hurting most of us have no idea how to eliminate the pain. Untreated this can lead to long term problems, many problems associated with the foot are the result of a faulty relationship between the bones and the muscles of the foot. Misalignment can result in a number of problems, commonly flat feet, persistent ankle sprains, bunions, corns, calluses, even symptoms that one would not normally associate with feet such as stress and pain in the back, neck, hips and knees.

SO WHAT ARE ORTHOTICS?

Orthotics, are special footwear inserts that are individually designed and manufactured to ease your pain and discomfort. They promote the proper alignment of the feet, restore balance, improve sports performance and alleviate pain in the knee, hip and lower back.

HURRY! £5 OFF CHIROPODY AND PODIATRY TREATMENT DURING JAN/FEB 2010 ONLY NEW PATIENTS ONLY, QUOTE PVF 26/01 WHEN BOOKING AND SUBMIT THIS VOUCHER AT THE TIME OF YOUR APPOINTMENT. NOT VALID WITH ANY OTHER OFFER.

HOW DO ORTHOTICS WORK?

As your foot sits comfortably on our orthotic it is gently and consistently directed into the optimum position allowing the foot to function correctly when walking, running and standing.

AT HEALTHY FEET CHIROPODY AND PODIATRY OUR PRESCRIPTION ORTHOTICS ARE MADE TO THE HIGHEST STANDARDS AVAILABLE USING MODERN TECHNOLOGY, ARE COMPLETELY ACCURATE AND PROVIDE THE VERY BEST CORRECTIVE TREATMENT AVAILABLE. Our 3D Optical Laser Foot Scanner replaces the need for traditional plaster casting and drawing around the foot, methods still in use today which are messy, inaccurate, costly and utilizing materials of limited life, requiring frequent replacement. We successfully treat many foot conditions but one common foot condition we see a lot of at our Axminster based clinic is PLANTAR FASCIITIS. When your first few steps out of bed in the morning cause severe pain in the heel of your foot, you may have plantar fasciitis (fash-ee-EYE-tiss). It's an overuse injury affecting the sole or flexor surface (plantar) of the foot. A diagnosis of plantar fasciitis means you have inflamed the tough, fibrous band of tissue (fascia) connecting your heel bone to the base of your toes. You're more likely to get the condition if you're overweight, or if you have a job that requires a lot of walking or standing on hard surfaces. You're also at risk if you walk or run for exercise, especially if you have tight calf muscles that limit how far you can flex your ankles. People with very flat feet or very high arches are also more prone to plantar fasciitis.

The condition starts gradually with mild pain at the heel bone often referred to as a stone bruise. You're more likely to feel it after (not during) exercise. The pain classically occurs again after arising from a midday lunch break.

If you don't treat plantar fasciitis, it may become a chronic condition. You may not be able to keep up your level of activity and you may also develop symptoms of foot, knee, hip and back problems because of the way plantar fasciitis changes the way you walk.

Snow deters some ladies

THE threat of snow and blizzards deterred many members of Musbury and Whitford Women's Institute from venturing out on January 12th, which was a shame as those who lived locally enjoyed an excellent illustrated talk by Tony Burges who is a guide for the Dartmoor National Park Authority.

Members were told that 40,000 people live within the park boundaries and the authority has the right to deal with any planning applications.

There are 30 to 40 guides to take parties around the area and Tony showed pictures of many isolated places which some of us knew nothing about.

During the business after the tea break members were told of a resolution suggested in committee by our treasurer opposing the proposed withdrawal of cheques in a few years' time.

It was agreed that this be investigated further and, in the meantime, members were urged to write letters of protest to their MP, especially those who will be seriously affected.

Anniversary

THIS year is the 90th anniversary of the Devon Federation of the WI.

Cross-county celebrations are planned and Seaton Women's Institute will also hold events locally.

At the first monthly meeting, an inspiring talk was given of a lifelong interest in painting and travelling.

The next meeting is on February 16th at 2.15pm in Seaton Methodist Church Hall.

Folk dancers toast a new venue with special event

HONITON Folk Dance Club moved into a new venue recently.

The popular club has moved into a new venue at the Turks Head Function Rooms — formerly the Honiton Motel.

On Monday, January 18th a special event took place to mark the occasion. Music was provided by the club's resident band The Amicrofters.

This Honiton group is well known for their lively music and smart stage sets.

The duo is led by Andrew Mycroft on accordion accompanied by his wife June on keyboard and banjo. The calling was done by local man Simon Maplesden.

To mark the occasion cheese and wine was served and a toast was drunk to a long and happy association between Honiton Folk Dance Club and Turks Head.

Turks Head manager Nick Thornton said he was delighted that the dancers enjoyed themselves so much.

The club was happy to welcome two new members, Dermot and Gwen Sanders on their first evening.

They said that they had thoroughly enjoyed the event and would be back next week.

If any readers would like to know more about the club they can visit the website www.amicrofters.co.uk or contact 01404 46451.

Do take the opportunity to have fun, get a little exercise, and make new friends.

Lions thank town for a bumper Christmas

AXMINSTER and District Lions Club has had a bumper Christmas thanks to the incredible generosity of the Axminster people.

Activities began with a vengeance on December 4th. Santa and his helpers were scheduled to be out on 15 occasions — 14 were achieved and the Lions were extremely sad not to be able to visit Boxfield Road and Foxhill.

Many apologies go to those families, especially the disappointed children.

Although Santa is used to the cold and snow, the ice made it too great a health and safety risk for his reindeer.

Despite this, the profit from the float was over £2,000 and was even more than last year. Lions continue to be humbled by the kindness of the Axminster folk.

Many people willingly — and good humouredly — gave twice and even three times — in their homes, at the street collections and for the hampers.

A big thank you must go to the twelve venues who agreed to raffle the Christmas hampers prepared by Millers Farm Shop.

They are Axe Vale Social Club, Axe Inn, Castle Inn, Conservative Club, Lamb Inn, Old Inn Hawkhurch, Mole Avon, Ridgeway, Prospect Garage, Uplyme Post Office, Musbury Post Office and New Inn Kilminster.

A grand total of £650 profit was made.

In this time of recession it is particularly heartening that local businesses are prepared to give time for fund raising.

As if the float and hampers were not enough, Axminster Lions were active at St Mary's Christmas Fair and Festive Friday.

In addition, in the church rooms on Saturday, December 12th they were delighted to be able to offer weary, cold shoppers free seasonal refreshments courtesy of Tesco and Co-op.

Collections on these occasions were over £200.

So an amazing £3,000 has been raised by the people of Axminster and District for their most needy and vulnerable citizens.

Congratulations to everyone who gave and helped.

Double trip for members

SEATON and District Club for the Visually Impaired went on two outings last autumn.

In October last year they visited Exmouth for the annual meeting of the Devon Association for the Blind, and were treated to an excellent lunch.

Then, just before Christmas, with help from the Seaton Carnival Committee, around 20 members of the group went out for a celebration tea in Musbury. Again, this was a very happy occasion for those who were able to attend.

The next meeting was held at the usual venue, St Gregory's Church Hall, Colyford Road, Seaton, on Monday, January 18th.

The meeting combined the usual activities with the club's own annual meeting, at which members had the chance to have their say in how the group is managed in the future.

For more information about the club and becoming a member contact Joan Ayres on 01297 24275.

A landmark

UPLYME and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society offers a wide range of meetings, outings and plant sales throughout the year and 2010 promises to be a landmark year with more events than ever before.

The highlight of the year is the society's Summer Show on July 17th. The members plan to eclipse 2009's record-breaking event.

Many of the activities are available to non-members at a nominal fee of £1.

For further details call Brian on 07831 533580 or, if you would like to become a society member, please ring membership secretary Tony on 01297 445598.

Gold award for county's scheme elite

THE Devon 'elite' of the Duke of Edinburgh's Awards scheme gathered in Exeter earlier this month for a gold award presentation.

The gold award is the scheme's top accolade and among recipients were Jake Arnott, Zoe Watson (both Colyton Grammar School), Iain Fifer (Kilmington Baptist Youth Group) and Katya Moore (from Combyne and St Margaret's School, Exeter).

About 50 gold award presentations were made during the ceremony, which was hosted by Devon County Council.

In short, the awards scheme is a personal development programme undertaken as part of leisure time activities.

It challenges young people between the ages of 14 and 25 to serve others, acquire new skills, experience adventure, and make new friends, young and old.

The scheme is delivered through schools, colleges, youth clubs, voluntary organisations such as scouts and guides and churches.

Getting a gold award does take a considerable time and effort, the average being around two years.

Each participant has to cover five different areas of achievement - a volunteering project, skills, physical recreation, expedition and residential experience.

Councillor Christine Channon, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Schools and Skills, said: "Congratulations to these remarkable young people for achieving this fantastic accolade."

"I am delighted that once again so many young people from across Devon have been involved in this superb scheme, having undertaken a wide and varied range of projects and expeditions to achieve this award."

"The Duke of Edinburgh Award scheme provides young people with a real breadth of skills - from volunteering to physical challenges, developing existing new talents or trying something new, taking part in an expedition and undertaking a residential trip as part of a team."

"These are all skills that will provide them with invaluable assets towards further education, employment and training, as well as helping local communities, charities and voluntary groups."

More information about the awards scheme is available online at www.dofe.org

Village pull together for fundraising

THE village hall, the church and the WI in Stockland have all come together to raise money for the victims of the Haiti disaster.

A fundraising morning will be staged on Saturday, February 6th in Stockland Village Hall and the aim is to raise money for a shelter box or two.

Shelter boxes contain a tent and other useful supplies for people who have been displaced.

The Stockland fundraiser runs from 10am-12noon and one of those involved, Jill Bellamy, said: "There will be a shelter box there with the tent erected and the contents on show."

"There will be bacon butties, coffee, tea, cakes etcetera and we are hopeful that our vicar is going to be playing his guitar although this is to be verified."

Chalet bid goes on

A PLANNING issue dating back to 2005 will go on for a little longer after East Devon District Council's Development Management Committee deferred the agenda item involving holiday chalets in Otter Valley Park, Honiton.

More than 20 enforcement notices were issued in 2005 to permanent residents of the chalets who were in breach of a planning condition allowing only holiday use.

Some residents have since engaged in civil action against the company which sold them the chalets.

The matter was listed on the committee's January 12th agenda, and the proposal was to give the relevant EDDC department the go-ahead for enforcement action after June 30th regarding breach of enforcement notices.

The matter was deferred, however, but EDDC has previously stated that any successful civil action by the residents would merely provide them with more resources to seek alternative accommodation.

Rotary raises £2,610 for Haiti

HONITON Rotary Club has raised more than £2,600 for the Haiti Shelterbox appeal during a recent collection. Members of the group were out in the town's Lace Walk shopping centre on Saturday, January 16th, and Tuesday, January 19th. Mike Huxtable, of Honiton Rotary, said: "In total we raised £2,610 and that is enough for six Shelterboxes. "I would like to thank everyone who donated, we are very pleased with the outcome."

FAST-MOVING ROGER SENDS URGENT ITEMS

A HEMYOCK resident has moved quickly to send urgent items out to Haiti following the devastating earthquake that hit the country.

Roger Lambert is the area Shelterbox organiser and recently attended Hemyock market and Hemyock Baptist Church to drum up support for the Shelterbox appeal.

Mr Lambert collected a total of £2,000 in pledges and gifts, enough to fund four boxes.

Each Shelterbox costs £490 and contains a tent, cooking equipment, basic tool kit, water purification tablets, sleeping and survival equipment and children's books and pens.

At the time of writing Shelterbox had sent 930 boxes to Haiti with 1,000 more waiting to go.

Shelterbox's head of operations John Leach said: "We spoke with our team in Haiti and already they've been working with other aid agencies and the government to assess where Shelterboxes are most needed.

"Our priority is now getting logistics in and doing all we can to get it on the island. We're sending a Shelterbox logistics team into Miami to work and coordinate logistics into Haiti from there."

Anyone who would like to donate to the appeal can visit www.shelterbox.org.

A rare smew spotted after bad weather

NOT surprisingly, the cold spell brought into the area large numbers of refugee birds trying to escape the bitter weather and find food.

Large numbers of redwings and fieldfares have been seen while several thousand skylarks and large flocks of lapwings were observed heading down the Axe Valley and southwards. A rare female smew was spotted off Seaton Hole, and also seen at sea were an eider and a velvet scoter, while a small party of brent geese were noted on the river.

The prize sighting, however, was a bittern at Blackhole Marsh and photographed by Steve Waite. Incredibly difficult to spot due to its camouflaged plumage, the bird did sit in a field and then perched in a hedge for an hour on January 9th along the Colyford road.

Four ruffs were also seen on Colyford Marsh and, as expected, woodcock and snipe moved west, trying to escape the freezing conditions and find soft feeding. Lastly, a red kite was seen flying west over Seaton Bay before circling over Beer Head. I suspect that as their numbers continue to increase kites will be seen more frequently as they expand their range.

On the home front my feeders have been surprisingly neglected of late, other than small charms of goldfinches and a few blue and great tits. There have been very few sparrows, but the resident robins seem to be thriving on the meal worms under the tables.

Fortunately, the cold spell was over before wild birds were too seriously affected. However, had it continued for another week or so I think we would have then seen dire problems. Let's hope that the threat of further snow and cold weather does not materialise.

Have you seen any kestrels recently? Whilst there has been a steady increase in the populations of most birds-of-prey, kestrels seem to be in decline.

There was a time, not so long ago, when one would be almost certain to spot one or two hovering over main road verges, seeking mice, voles or insects, but now such a sighting is increasingly rare.

I noticed a letter in a sporting magazine recently in which a reader, from west Cornwall, described seeing a hovering kestrel attacked by a peregrine. The larger falcon managed to take evasive action and, eventually, the peregrine departed for easier prey. One wonders whether peregrines have, in fact, made some inroad on the kestrel population?

On a more cheerful note, volunteers coming forward to assist with conservation work at Bridport's local nature reserve are being offered a free tree for their help. The Dorset Wildlife Trust and Dorset Countryside Rangers need help with the Jellyfields Nature Reserve on February 4th.

The day has been designed to give volunteers an idea of what conservation work entails and will take place in the reserve's wet woods which are a haven for wildlife. Not only will you be given a tree but also a bowl of warming soup. How can you resist? If you'd like to join the party head out of Bridport on the A35 to Dorchester and turn right into Walditch Lane after the Texaco garage, then left into Lower Walditch Lane and the site is on your right. Further details from Emily Brown on 01305 321329.

I have just learnt that the East Devon AONB team are holding another tour of the Beer Quarry caves to spot hibernating bats. This will take place on March 9th and I hope to be able to join the team and other visitors. I understand that such was the interest in the first tour last November that this second visit is already fully booked. However, I will let you know how we get on in due course.

ARTHRITIS - affects both Dogs and Cats

As our pets reach their senior years, they can become slower to exercise, reluctant to get up in the morning or have difficulty going upstairs or jumping.

Elderly cats sleep a lot and have a poor coat as it is painful to groom, especially over the back.

You may put it down to just getting older but it can be a sign of painful joints – most commonly affecting hips and elbows.

There are a lot of medications to relieve our pet's discomfort. Palatable supplements in liquid or tablet form, pain relief medication in liquid or tablet form.

There is even a pain relief tablet for dogs that only needs to be given ONCE a month.

Three of our vets can also treat cats and dogs with acupuncture in suitable cases.

If you have an elderly pet who is slowing up, please arrange a health check with one of our vets and see if we are able to put a spring back in their step.

Congratulations

the churches

With Nigel Speller

A WEEK ago the Bishop of Crediton came to Colyton parish church to commission the Colyton Benefice Mission Community, comprising the churches at Branscombe, Colyton, Colyford, Musbury and Southleigh.

This is only the second Mission Community to be so commissioned in Honiton Deanery, which comprise some 36 churches. Kilminster Benefice, now forming the Five Alive Mission Community took first place. Now we expect others to follow as they complete their plans.

The Diocese of Exeter has asked all local congregations to pool their resources, especially of people so that God's work here may become more effective. People and the task of the churches will benefit from working closer together. It allows greater sharing of all resources, skills and talents and gives mutual support.

Greater reliance will be placed on the lay members of the churches in these plans and this is important when we remember that one vicar or rector may now have four or five churches.

Honiton Parish has a visit from the Bishop of Crediton in February when he will be there for a confirmation service on Sunday, February 14th. Some of those to be confirmed come from other churches including three of a family who regularly worship at Colyton. Earlier on the same day Bishop Bob will be making a visit for morning worship to Southleigh church.

Unfortunately the completion of the work on the restoration of the great west window at Colyton could not be finished in time for the Bishops' recent visit owing to poor weather and sickness. It is now hoped that the blessing of the window will be on Saturday, August 1st at the end of the flower festival there.

January also brings a new beginning for St Paul's Church, Honiton, as it will shortly take back the Mackarness Hall, adjacent to the parish church, from East Devon District Council after 25 years. The hall is closed until February 12th to allow essential repairs and decorations to take place. Future bookings for the hall may be made by telephoning the parish office on 01404 44035.

The Mackarness Hall has an interesting history. For a time it was part of the Allhallows School plant and it was used as a school assembly hall.

Another nearby building which was part of the same school was the present Allhallows Museum which served as the school chapel for many years. The chapel furniture from Honiton went with the school to Rousdon but the altar and War Memorials have now returned to Honiton, being installed in the south aisle of St Michael's Church.

Members of Allhallows School hold a service at St Michaels Church near to All Saints Day. The next service Saturday, November 6th at 2.30pm.

Many local churches have arranged special collections for relief work following the Haiti earthquake. One special event still to come will be at St Andrews Colyton at 11am on Sunday, January 31st when young members of the choir will offer a short concert of instrumental and vocal items — in aid of earthquake relief.

Advice has been received from the Church of England National Stewardship Officer, Dr John Preston to review its investments to make sure it is not missing out on better returns. Many parishes have reserves in the CCLA Church of England Deposit Fund, which has fallen in value in recent years. A guide with advice on investments that are not equity linked is at www.parishresources.org.uk/reserve.

There is concern this week among those hoping for a decision regarding the consecration of women bishops in the Church of England. It is reported that the Committee of the General Synod failed to make recommendations for the forthcoming General Synod. So the topic will not reach Synod agenda until July.

A combined community and church effort is recorded from east Devon, where local initiative has resulted in the closed village inn at Yarcombe to be reopened with volunteers including the local Vicar, The Revd Alistair McCollum, who takes his turn behind the bar. This sole village pub dates back to the ninth century and was later owned by Sir Francis Drake.

Axminster churches have just taken part in an annual national initiative the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Every noon in the week at a different venue each congregation takes it in turn to host a 30 minute time of worship, prayer and reflection. The week is a springboard for the initiatives which take place throughout the year when the churches look to live up to the name Axminster Churches Together.

Help a child by joining an Aerobathon

AEROBICS for a good cause will be on the menu at Ottery St Mary Leisure Centre on Monday, February 8th from 6pm-8pm.

The centre is one of the chosen venues for the NSPCC's nationwide Aerobathon fundraiser, which encourages people to enjoy a two-hour workout and help make a difference to children in desperate need.

Overall, it is hoped the nationwide events will raise £425,000 towards the Child's Voice Appeal.

The appeal aims to develop the ChildLine service, for children and young people who need help and advice, and the NSPCC Helpline, for adults with a concern about a child.

Donna Statham, NSPCC fundraising manager in east Devon, said: "Why not set the Aerobathon as your challenge for 2010? Encourage your friends, family and colleagues to take part and register now."

"The day is fast approaching so please sign up without delay. We hope to see hundreds of people taking part to help raise money for our Child's Voice Appeal."

"The money will help make a real difference to the lives of vulnerable children as it will enable us to expand ChildLine and the NSPCC Helpline."

Cat Potter, from Ottery St Mary Leisure Centre, said: "It costs around £1,600 to recruit and train a volunteer counsellor to work at ChildLine's Westcountry base."

◆ ZOE Lucker who is supporting the NSPCC Aerobathon

"It would be great if we could get enough people taking part and raising enough sponsorship to be able to help recruit two more volunteers."

The registration fee is £5 per person, including entry to the event and an NSPCC Aerobathon t-shirt.

For further details and to register, please visit www.nspcc.org.uk/aerobathon or contact Donna Statham on dstatham@nspcc.org.uk or on 01823 674 495.

Leaflets are available in participating leisure centres.

The Abbeyfield Society

The aim of the Society is to provide sheltered housing for lonely, frail, elderly people, who are looking for security and companionship.

In Seaton there is a very attractive and comfortable home, offering individual rooms many with en-suite facilities, which can be furnished with a resident's own furniture. A resident housekeeper provides main meals.

At present there is a vacancy in the home and further information can be obtained from - THE SEATON ABBEYFIELD SOCIETY

The Abbeyfield movement consists of a number of individual locally run and locally focused Societies which to assist elderly people who are finding the pressures of daily life increasingly difficult. Each Society provides individual accommodation for each resident, and a resident housekeeper provides two meals per day and practical and pastoral support

Are you an elderly person, fed up with living alone and trying to cope with running a home but do not want full-time care?

The Abbeyfield Society has the answer for you!

Elmwood

Built towards the end of the 19th century, Elmwood is a prestigious building. As you enter, you are impressed with the happy and light atmosphere. The Home has 38 ensuite bedrooms. A modern lift connects the ground to first floor. There are no steps in the Home, enabling those with wheelchairs to roam around without any limitations. Rooms are large, airy and with good views to look out.

The Home is rated as "Good" with the CQC. The residents whom we interviewed were all of the opinion that the Home is the best they could find and are very happy living there. The garden is beautiful and breathtaking.

You can visit the Home as a guest, stay for a day at no cost, speak to residents or staff and make your own conclusion.

"Hearing Loss...it's no joke" says Tom O'Connor

The leading Liverpool Comedian knows only too well the importance of being able to hear well. Exposure to loud noise whilst on stage has no doubt had a detrimental effect on Tom's hearing and it began to affect his performances before he realized there was a problem. It wasn't until Tom was fitted with hearing aids that he realized quite how much he had been missing out on.

Like your eyesight, your hearing loss will change over time, and so will your prescription. This means it is very important to have regular hearing tests and service checks to ensure that your hearing aids still address your individual hearing loss.

For a FREE DVD of Tom's story or an appointment with a hearing aid audiologist from Regional Hearing Services call your local Bennett & Rogers or Pullen & Symes Opticians (quoting ref: TC PW 01).

Help and care when you need it

The Manor House

The Manor House, a grade II listed building, is a residential home for 15 elderly in Seaton, East Devon. The home is a short walk from the town centre and seafront.

The proprietors live on the premises which they feel helps to ensure that high standards are maintained. The home has recently undergone an unannounced inspection by our regulators, the Care Quality Commission (CQC) and has been awarded a 3 star rating demonstrating excellent standards.

The Manor House has a cheerful homely atmosphere. Visitors often remark on how they are made to feel welcome at all times. There are well-trained staff on duty day and night.

The Manor House has a small garden at the front and a courtyard garden at the back with a fish pond, bird feeders and often the resident dog and cat.

The Manor House's aims are to provide high standards of care, promote independence and to enable residents to live life as they choose. Residents are encouraged to follow their chosen pursuits and we provide a variety of entertainment such as quizzes and games. There are trips out around town and to the seafront and trips out in the charabanc. An activities/exercise organiser visits once a week, they have frequent visits from musical entertainers. Residents are encouraged to follow their chosen religious beliefs and a clergyman gives a communion service once a month. The Manor House always encourages residents to become involved in local events such as exhibitions at the town hall, sea front fetes and the carnival. They also have a visiting library service.

It is The Manor House's policy to provide fresh high quality food from local providers and they cater for special diets such as vegetarian or diabetic etc.

The Manor House has fifteen single rooms, all fitted with a wash basin. Nine of the rooms also have an en-suite toilet. Residents are encouraged to personalise their rooms with their own belongings including small items of furniture if they wish. Each room is fitted with a Nurse Call system.

In order to ensure that the placement is suitable, prospective clients are encouraged to visit the home with their relatives prior to admission. The proprietors will also visit the prospective resident at their present accommodation. The first month after a resident is admitted to the home is a trial period to see if the resident is happy and to ensure we can provide the level of care required.

On admission a care plan will be made with the involvement of the resident and their relatives - this emphasizes the resident's potential to manage their own lives as independently as possible and to exercise their freedom of choice. Care plans are reviewed monthly or whenever there is a change in resident's care needs.

Fees vary depending upon the level of care required and whether the room has ensuite facilities. Fees include all care and accommodation costs, food, drink, heating, lighting and laundry. They do not cover the costs of newspapers, magazines, hairdressing and dry cleaning.

Honiton Hearing

Colin Eaton RHAD, FSHAA is a registered Hearing Aid Audiologist and Hearing Aid Dispenser who together with his wife, Samantha, own and run HONITON HEARING CENTRE. As members of the Customer Care Scheme operated by the British Society of Hearing Aid Audiologists, the professional body of registered hearing aid dispensers in the UK, Colin & Sam demonstrate a professional and practical approach to "customer care".

Customers are able to come into the excellent and well equipped Centre in New Street, Honiton, for their hearing tests and aftercare, however there are a great many people suffering hearing loss, who are less mobile. This family run business has thrived on personal service to suit individual need and Colin is more than happy to provide a comprehensive and professional service visiting people in their own homes. HONITON HEARING have always prided themselves on ensuring that all customers are treated with the care, respect and dignity they deserve. Aftercare is no problem; Colin is always happy to make a return visit for any checks and adjustments.

HONITON HEARING pride themselves on offering customers a fair price for excellent service. They are not tied to any one manufacturer, as Colin is an "independent" hearing aid dispenser, so can choose from a large variety of hearing aids to suit individual need.

If you feel it is time for a hearing test, but worry about being talked into buying an expensive hearing aid, do not hesitate - contact HONITON HEARING CENTRE for genuine, friendly and professional advice.

Richardson Gill

How do you decide which agent to use?

IT is interesting to hear how people make the choice of who comes to value their home. Most of the valuations we carry out at Gordon and Rumsby are through recommendation.

So, do you ask your friends and neighbours or look through the property section of your local newspaper? Do you look for "Sold/ForSale" boards in your area? Or perhaps, take a wander along your High Street and pop in to an office or two? Does the label "Internet Agent" make you think that the service you get would be greatly reduced? If so, then think again and please read on...

These days, the majority of buyers come through the internet and every estate agent has to subscribe to a number of different property portals if they want to sell houses, so in that respect, we are all internet agents. At Gordon and Rumsby, not only do we offer exceptional service including accompanied viewings, floorplans, glossy brochures, local newspaper advertising as well as internet advertising but we take great pride in what we do and the details that we produce for your home. We also try to keep up to date with industry changes and carefully choose the property portals that we think are the best to sell your home. There are so many now that it is difficult for buyers to know which to use.

Rightmove was the forerunner and due to many years of successful TV advertising is still popular. However, things are changing with so many other portals in competition for that number one spot and several agents in the area are no longer subscribing to Rightmove. This means that there is no longer a single portal that has ALL the local properties listed.

A few portals that have been launched in recent years may be worth adding to your list and the estate agent press tells me that another is soon to be launched.

Two more recent portals that you may not know about are www.propertylive.co.uk and www.radarhomes.co.uk

Property live was launched by the National Association of Estate Agents for use by its members. Any local agent worth their salt should be a member of this national body and their properties will all be listed on this site. Radarhomes is more recent and is just getting off the ground. Currently it is a south west specialist but it is fast moving through the rest of the country and this month began a programme of television advertising on ITV1. Many local agents have become part of Radarhomes, so there is a good chance your dream home might appear on this site very soon (if not already).

The likes of Primelocation.com and Findaproperty.co.uk along with Propertyfinder.com are also some of the top portals to keep an eye on.

A word of caution about SOLD prices. It is easy these days to find out what a property last sold for and with the fall in the market in recent years, many of us use the sold price as a guide to what a property is worth now. However, there is crucial information missing that might have an impact on current values, which should be considered: What condition was the property in when it last sold? What were the circumstances of the sale? If a property needed renovating or even minor improvements, the value could have changed by anything from £1,000-£50,000 or even more. If the property had to be sold due to death or financial problems, it may have been a bargain due to the need to sell quickly.

At Gordon and Rumsby, we give careful consideration to value before marketing a property to give the most accurate valuation possible and the above points along with current market conditions are all taken into consideration.

If you would like to talk to us about selling a property, please call Julie or Susan on 01297 553768 or 01460 30888.

Spanish Night at Barrel o' Beer

A WARM welcome awaits you from the Hunt family at The Barrel o' Beer where they believe that people deserve that bit more than just a pub. They pride themselves on their traditional values of hospitality and customer care. Making the most of the beautiful countryside we're set in, they use local seafood, Devon meat and local game (when available). The chef, who worked in high-class hotels and restaurants around the world, gives the regularly changing menu a taste of the Mediterranean and a hint of world cooking.

At the moment The Barrel are running Friday night Spanish Tapas nights. If you are looking for something different then this is a delicious option and great value including four tapas for ten pounds on certain dishes. The menu offers such traditional Spanish delights as Chorizo frito al vino (spicy Spanish sausage, flavoured with paprika, garlic and herbs, sautéed in red wine) and Gambas al pil-pil (King prawns, sizzling in a chilli and garlic infused oil so you will not be disappointed.)

The Barrel only use the best ingredients available and try to look after their customers in a way which represents how they themselves would like to be treated, with an emphasis on details, which will make your visit to the Barrel memorable for all the right reasons.

THE FEVER CHART

Three visions of the Middle East by Naomi Wallace

PILOT Theatre, who have previously performed Lord Of The Flies and Looking For JJ in Exeter, return to Exeter Northcott between Tuesday, February 9th and Saturday, February 13th with their new play The Fever Chart.

Produced in association with York Theatre Royal, The Fever Chart brings to life the stirring work of playwright Naomi Wallace, who is best known for her deeply political plays including One Flea Spare and The Trestle At Pope Lick Creek.

Written as a trilogy, the play tells three distinct but thematically-related stories, each exploring different aspects of conflict in The Middle East. The settings include a zoo in Palestine, a hospital in Tel Aviv, and a yard in Iraq during the 1991 Gulf War.

Despite tackling huge political questions, the play talks to audiences through very human concerns of love, life and death, exploring how humanity survives in the most inhumane conditions.

Born in Kentucky, USA, internationally-acclaimed playwright Naomi Wallace now splits her time between the USA and the Yorkshire Dales. Her works as a poet, playwright and screenwriter get to the heart of political tensions and have gained her a reputation for pushing boundaries.

The Fever Chart will be performed at 7.30pm each day, and a student matinee will take place on Wednesday at 1.30pm, and a Saturday matinee will show from 2.30pm. Tickets are £10 to £16, half price concessions. For more details or to book tickets call 01392 493493, or visit www.exeternorthcott.co.uk

RENAULT LAUNCHES SPORTY NEW CLIO 'S'

NEW Clio 'S' designed to give sport-look and accessible style with affordable prices and frugal engines
Clio S range priced from £11,209 to £13,458 on-the-road
Available to order now and in showrooms from March

WHILE its flagship Renaultsport models continue to raise the hot hatch bar and obliterate their rivals in equal measure, Renault is also seeking to bring the sporty look and feel to the core Clio range with the launch of a new 'S' version.

Resurrecting the successful Clio S formula from the early 90s, the new three-door versions hark back to the original through their trademark white 16-inch 'Polar' alloy wheels. Among the other cosmetic changes, are a white front bumper insert and white 'GT' rear spoiler, while to the sides and roof, some optional slightly less subtle white racing stripes catch the eye with an 'S' incorporated into each band. Completing the package, are extra tinted rear windows and tailgate for a truly contemporary look.

The sporty theme continues on the inside, with a be-spoke interior including 'S' embossed upholstery, leather steering wheel and striking white centre console, dashboard inserts and instrument dials.

The new entrants are based on the Expression specification, currently only available on five-door. They come with a choice of three responsive and frugal engines, 1.2 16V 75, 1.2 TCe 100 and 1.5 dCi 86, all of which meet Renault's eco2 criteria.

Pricing for the new Clio S versions starts at £11,209 on-the-road for the 1.2 16V 75, rising to £13,458 for the 1.5 dCi 86 A/C. Buyers have a choice of four colours for the latest addition to Renault's ever-popular supermini range: Glacier White, Pearl Black, Capricorn Red and Extreme Blue.

Ford Mondeo named top fleet car

THE Ford Mondeo is the most popular fleet car according to recent poll.

Industry website, FleetDirectory.co.uk created a shortlist of popular fleet cars based on some of the top car searches performed on sister website, ContractHireAndLeasing.com. The Mondeo came out top in the resulting online poll forming a sizeable lead; in total taking 20 per cent of the vote.

In second place, came the BMW 3-Series raking in 14 per cent of the vote followed by the Audi A6 in third, with 13 per cent of the vote.

The Mondeo perhaps came as a surprise winner; it is well known that German cars are very popular within the fleet and contract hire market yet the Mondeo managed to overtake some of the cars which traditionally are seen as dominant within the sector. The Mondeo has undeniable qualities working in its favour however, offering competitive pricing, class-leading safety specifications, low running and whole life costs as well as practical, internal dimensions.

With such a huge range of Mondeo variants, there is a car to suit most needs, from the entry level 1.6 Edge to the recently introduced Mondeo Titanium ECO 2.0. Aimed squarely at company car users, it combined two pressing business needs; improving fuel economy without compromising on specification. This latest edition benefits from Ford's ECOnetic technologies, and is available as a hatchback or estate form. In either form, it produces just 139g/km of CO2 and delivers 54.3mpg on a combined cycle.

Spokesperson for www.FleetDirectory.co.uk, Richard Lawton said: "The Mondeo is a very popular, long-established model, fleets and fleet managers trust in its solid manufacture. Add this to its smart innovations over the year, including the recent addition of the ECOnetic technology and the Mondeo is understandably very popular as a fleet car.

"Its lead in our poll speaks volumes of Ford's overall popularity among UK fleets and comes somewhat to explaining why Ford was the UK's most popular carmaker last year*."

Carsite's ten ways to stop losing money from your car

UNUSUAL body colours, messy interiors, short MOTs, missing paperwork or scratched alloy wheels are just some of the ways drivers are losing hundreds of pounds off the resale value of their cars.

Online used car retailer, Carsite.co.uk, conducted a study into what factors make big impacts on the value of a used car, and has put together some advice to help drivers achieve the best trade-in price for their motoring pride and joy.

One of the biggest mistakes drivers can make when buying a car is the colour. Unusual colours such as yellow, orange or pink are considered much more undesirable than silver, black or grey. On a small to medium car, the wrong shade can make it £200-£500 less appealing to retailers and buyers. A nearly new executive model could be worth up to £1000 less if the colour is expected to deter customers.

Wear and tear also have a major impact on a car's retained value with the quality of the interior often a good reflection on how well a car has been looked after. Badly scratched or tarnished alloy wheels can take £50-100 per alloy off the car's value, whilst cracked or chipped windcreens could shave off another £250-

300. Bad dents and scratches can cause a £200-300 drop in value per bumper or panel. Interiors that have been damaged by pets or children can also wipe hundreds off the resale price. A dog-chewed interior on a car recently sent to auction was the main reason for the vehicle achieving £500 under its book value.

The general cleanliness of a car can also be a good way of achieving a better offer for your car at trade in. Retailers see litter, grime and dust as indicators of a poorly maintained car so a thorough valet could make the difference of £300-400 in a dealer's offer.

Along with colour choice, choosing the right specifications during the buying process can make a significant impact on a car's retained value. Some larger executive models, for example, are more in demand fitted with automatic transmissions with manual versions sometimes achieving £1500 less at resale. A leather trimmed Audi, BMW or Mercedes could also be worth £1000 more than the same model with cloth trim.

An up-to-date service book and vehicle history is also vital to getting your car accepted by a retailer. If the dealer thinks the car might not have been correctly serviced they could refuse to take the car or offer £300-400 less for it. A long MOT certificate is another good way to increase buyer confidence - a car with only a few weeks left on the MOT could be worth £200-300 less to a retailer.

"A well maintained car is the best way to get a good resell valuation and fill your buyer with confidence," explains Alistair Jeff of Carsite.co.uk. "Keeping your car clean with an up-to-date service book and selling with a long MOT are simple, but rewarding steps to achieving this."

Ten ways to lose value from your car

1. Poor colour choice (£200-500)
2. Scratched or tarnished alloys (£50-100 per alloy)
3. Body dents and scratches (£200-300 per panel for worst examples)
4. Cracked or chipped windscreen (£250-300)
5. Poorly maintained trims and upholstery (Up to £500 in some instances)
6. Messy interior (£300-400)
7. Undesirable specifications (Dependent on model)
8. Incomplete service book and vehicle history (£300-400 or refusal to trade)
9. Balding or near-limit tyres (£100-150 per tyre)
10. Short MOT (£200-300)

Škoda Octavia 1.2 TSI and 1.6 TDI CR DSG: Two More Reasons to be Happy

THE Škoda Octavia family hatchback and estate range is now even more attractive thanks to the addition of two new engines. A new, downsized 1.2 TSI 105bhp petrol engine is now offered along with the very latest 1.6 TDI CR 105bhp diesel engine with DSG dual-clutch transmission.

The state-of-the-art 1.2 TSI 105bhp is now available with both 6-speed manual and 7-speed DSG gearboxes, in either hatchback or estate bodystyles and in S and SE trim levels. This engine first saw service in the recently introduced Yeti crossover, where it instantly impressed with its punchy performance and frugality thanks to its combination of a small-capacity petrol engine with turbocharging and direct injection technology.

It's a similar story in the Octavia, where the 1.2 TSI hatch combines low CO2 emissions of 134g/km* with a 0-62mph time of just 10.8 seconds; exceptional for its capacity of 1,197cc. Fuel economy is similarly impressive, with a combined figure of 49.6mpg. This new engine is available with both 6-speed manual and 7-speed DSG transmissions.

Meanwhile the recently introduced, latest-generation 1.6 TDI CR 105bhp diesel is now also available with 7-speed DSG dual-clutch gearbox, combining smooth, effortless performance with CO2 emissions of just 123g/km. The 1.6 TDI CR 105bhp DSG is available with the same bodystyle and trim combinations as the 1.2 TSI as well as in Elegance guise.

These new additions to the Octavia range continue to improve an already multi-award-winning formula of practicality, comfort, value for money and low running costs.

The New Mercedes-Benz E-Class Estate comes with class-leading load space and practicality as standard

- Easy-Pack Tailgate and Easy-Pack Quickfold bring ultimate practicality
- Class-leading load capacity of 1,950 litres for premium estate sector
- Rear, self levelling air suspension as standard
- Great fuel economy from 49.6 mpg with emissions from 150 g/km
- Prices from £30,395 OTR, four per cent lower than the previous car
- Up to 33 per cent improvement on company car tax
- First BlueTEC engine for the UK already meets EU-6 standards

WITH class-leading load capacity, enhanced practicality, greater fuel efficiency and low emissions from just 150 g/km the new Mercedes-Benz E-Class Estate, on sale from 21 January 2010, has set a new benchmark for the premium estate sector.

New innovations are designed to make life easy - even from across a busy car park. The Easy-Pack electronic tailgate can be activated at the press of a button on the key, opening the tailgate and automatically raising the load compartment cover making up to 695 litres available [with the rear seats in place]. The rear seats can be folded down using just one finger thanks to the innovative Easy-Pack Quickfold system opening the cavernous load capacity up to a maximum of 1,950 litres. In addition to this a further 112 litres of load space can be found in the Easy-Pack folding load compartment under the load space floor.

Easy-Pack Quickfold offers maximum convenience when loading large items as it enables the rear seats to be folded down from the load compartment, using operating levers on the D-Pillar, without the need to adjust headrest or move the driver or front passenger seat.

The largest cuboid that can fit in the car is now an impressive 172.5 cm x 100 cm x 62 cm and items up to 320 cm long can be accommodated as well. These class-leading dimensions mean that a customer could easily load an office desk, a large gas barbecue, a fridge freezer, a 50" plasma television or a 5ft sideboard in with out any need to dismantle.

With the potential for large items of significant weight being loaded into the rear of the car the E-Class Estate is fitted with rear self levelling air suspension as standard to ensure that ride and handling are not compromised.

From launch there will be a choice of seven engines: three diesel and four petrol; and as with the E-Class Saloon, 98 per cent of the E-Class Estate range will boast BlueEFFICIENCY measures. Weight reduction, efficient energy management systems as well as improved aerodynamics are standard - all of which have a positive effect on the fuel economy and emissions of the new car.

The E 220 CDI Estate returns 49.6 mpg, an improvement of 9.8 mpg and emits just 150 g/km, 38 g/km less than the previous generation. These improvements also have a positive impact for company car users. The P11D value for a company car driver using an E 220 CDI BlueEFFICIENCY Avantgarde is £30,935. With the car now in the 21 per cent tax band for 2009/10, a seven band fall from 28 per cent, the benefit in kind would be £6,496.35. Therefore those paying 40 per cent tax would be charged £2,598.54 a year, £216.55 a month, equating to an impressive 33 per cent reduction over the previous E-Class Estate. The E 250 CDI and the V6 E 350 CDI Estate complete the diesel line-up.

June 2010 sees the arrival of a fourth diesel engine, the E 350 BlueTEC - the world's cleanest diesel engine, which already meets EU-6 standards that come in to effect in 2014. BlueTEC technology has been developed by Mercedes-Benz to improve diesel emissions, especially nitrogen oxides, the only exhaust gas constituent that is inherently higher in diesel engines than petrol engines. Water based urea solution, AdBlue, is injected into the exhaust flow reducing 80 per cent of nitrogen oxides to harmless nitrogen and water.

The petrol line-up starts with the E 200 CGI which returns 35.8 mpg and emits 184 g/km. The E 250 CGI, E 350 CGI and E 500 complete the range at launch and in March the E 63 AMG Estate will arrive as well to complete the petrol line-up.

Model lines for the E-Class Estate will be SE, Avantgarde and Sport and all feature much higher levels of standard equipment than the outgoing model. The SE model line is understated yet elegant and features Aluminium trim, Artico upholstery along with 16" alloy wheels, with low rolling resistant tyres, Advanced Parking Guidance and Parktronic. The eye-catching Avantgarde is a £2,495 premium over the SE and includes leather upholstery, black ash wood trim, ambient lighting, Bi-Xenon headlamps with Adaptive Highbeam assist and the Intelligent Light System, as well as lower suspension, LED daytime running lights and 17" alloy wheels.

For those want a more dynamic look and feel the Sport model line offers AMG body styling, sports tuned suspension, sports seats in Artico/Microfibre, an AMG 3-spoke steering wheel, AMG floor mats, brushed aluminium trim and 18" AMG alloy wheels for £1,500 over the Avantgarde trim.

The E-Class Estate features all the standard safety features that we have already seen on the E-Class Saloon, including: Attention Assist, the drowsiness detection system; the Active Bonnet pedestrian protection system; nine airbags; PRE-SAFE, anticipatory protection system and, for Avantgarde and Sport models; Adaptive Highbeam Assist, which always selects the optimum headlamp range, unlike other systems which merely switch between low beam and high beam. This allows better visibility of the road ahead, pedestrians on the road and danger spots.

The Mercedes-Benz E-Class Estate is just a £1,750 premium over the competitively priced E-Class Saloon and features enhanced levels of standard equipment over the previous Estate. The introduction of the Easy-Pack tailgate, Easy-Pack Quickfold and the Easy-Pack folding floor also enhance practicality and ease of use for the customer. Pricing for the new E-Class Estate is four per cent lower than the outgoing model resulting in the range starting from £29,785 OTR for the E 200 CGI BlueEFFICIENCY SE through to £73,855 OTR for the range topping E 63 AMG Estate. As with every Mercedes-Benz, all E-Class Estates come with Mercedes-Benz's three year unlimited mileage warranty.

RUNNING ROUND-UP

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

Three AVR juniors took part in the second of the East Devon Junior Cross Country Events, which was hosted by Sidmouth Running Club.

The race was held at the Byes in Sidmouth on a beautiful Sunday morning. The U11s did one lap, which was approximately one mile, and the easy winner was AVR's Harry Felgate in 6:53. The U13s ran two laps totalling approximately two miles. Layla Felgate put in a great performance and was the second girl home in 14:57. Lydia Clapp also ran very well finishing fourth girl in 16:26. Well done to the three of them and thanks to Sidmouth Running Club for putting on the event.

No seniors did any racing but there was a huge turnout for the runs around the Grizzly and Cub routes. In near perfect weather those who ran the full 16 miles had a great time, but the run did bring home just how tough the race on March 7th will be.

Chris Keeffe also realises that it is essential to tie your shoe laces tight when running through the bog! Gill Day was the Cub run leader and was very pleased with how it panned out. Rick Wood though was rueing the fact that he had eaten Haggis the night before.

HONITON RUNNERS

with Judy Davey

THE Sidmouth Running Club leg of the East Devon Junior Cross Country Series took place on Sunday in glorious sunshine. The race was held in conjunction with the South West Vets Cross Country Championships in Sidmouth.

The course was a mile long lap around The Byes with different categories completing an appropriate number of laps.

Honiton Juniors had a fantastic turnout with 17 taking part including several younger siblings. The Under 11s and Under 13s set off together with the U11s running one mile and the U13s completing 2. Huw Williams and Arthur Heeler-Frood came 2nd and 3rd in their race and sisters Lily and Isabel Helston both came 1st in their respective category. Ed Cannings did well considering he thought he had been completing a warm up lap! He would have run so much faster!

Times and overall positions were: U11s – 2nd Huw 7:12, 3rd Arthur 7:43, 4th Isabel 7:44, 7th Max Helston 8:12, 10th Ella Harvey 9:21, 12th Ed 9:58

U13s – 3rd Lily 14:46, 5th Jake Harvey 15:47, 9th Kieran Anderson, 10th Jack Lovegrove, 11th Hester Heeler-Frood, 12th Kieran Lovegrove

Next came everybody else's race with Honiton juniors all running as Under 15s and completing three miles racing against adults who were completing either four or five miles. Sam Urghart and Reuben Heeler-Frood showed their usual fine form coming 3rd and 4th in this race. Katie Davey and Sophie Keywood also did very well coming 2nd and 3rd in their category. Josh Turner who has recently returned to the Club after taking sometime off to concentrate on cycling finished very convincingly in 6th place overall.

Times were: Sam 22:59, Reuben 23:14, Josh 25:31, Katie 27:51 and Sophie 28:29

Huw's Dad, Paul, completed the Honiton contingent taking part in the adult race completing five laps in a time of 41:51 and 15th place. Richard Drage of Tavistock AC won this race convincingly in 32:29 after lapping several runners.

HONITON WINE BAR GOLF SOCIETY'S PRIZE GIVING DINNER - 19th January

HWB Golf Society marked the end of their first year with a gala dinner and prize giving evening at the Honiton Wine Bar on Tuesday 19th January.

The society was formed early in 2009 to bring together friends on a monthly basis for a great day's golf on a variety of superb local courses. 'The society epitomises the ethos of the Wine Bar', says Graham Quinlan. 'We have an emphasis on fun and enjoyment and welcome players of all abilities.'

The society gratefully acknowledged the continued generous support of many local businesses including AG Signs, Harts Renault, Futurity Finance and the Honiton Wine Bar.

Overall winner for 2009 is Chris Delarge, Player of the Year was awarded to John Greengrass who is also honoured as Captain for 2010.

"Many of our society are already members of local clubs and enjoy playing different courses" said Colin Franklin, the society's Captain for 2009 who continued "New members and guests are always welcome – just ask at the Wine Bar."

For further details contact: Terry Sharp – Secretary, Honiton Wine Bar Golf Society, 4 Upland Chase, Honiton, EX14 2FT

HONITON with Paul Diment

SUNDAY saw the gentlemen of Honiton compete in the 5th round of the initial stages of the prestigious Sun-Am competition. Due to an overnight frost the temporary greens got another outing which always acts as a good leveller in this match play format.

One result stands out from the rest with Senior stalwart Jim Wallis triumphing on his own (4&3) over two promising youngsters Barton & Willey.

This week there were also wins for Peace & Bonetta (4&2), Maggs & Cook (6&4), The Brothers Reece (4&2), Dimond & Lavender (5&4), Morris & Lambert (1up), Voisey & Chivers (1up), Black & Harris (5&4), Drew & Noar (1up), Short & Pollack (4&2), Morgan & Graham (4&2), Wood & Watkins (8&7), Tierney & Hassell (3&1), Netherway & Richards (6&5).

Ladies Golf: This week the Honiton Ladies held their A G M. Outgoing Lady Captain Sue Selway thanked the ladies for their support during the year.

The Ladies then welcomed Elizabeth Ward as their new Lady Captain for 2010 with Sue Ritchie taking over the position of Lady vice-captain.

Mixed Golf: After the recent bad weather the Tuesday Mixed Fours resumed with over 20 members taking part in a Greensomes Stableford Competition.

All the winners this week were presented with their prizes by the Lady captain Sue Selway. In first place with a score of 35 pts were Linda Northover and John Frith. In second place with 28 pts on c/b were Jan Dickinson and Mike Watts. In third place losing out on c/b were Sue Ritchie and Paul Witton.

The Lady captain also presented (see photo below, left) the prize for the Mixed Golfer of the Year to Stan Squire whose average over eight qualifying competitions was a very good 38.25.

WINDWHISTLE

with Pete Hamilton-Walsh.

THE Saturday circus saw a big turnout this week up at the Windwhistle Golf Club with 34 players getting involved now that the weather is improving.

There was a good mix of men and women joining in the fun despite the game being reduced to 15 holes. As usual, it was a very closely contested game with this week producing two overall winners on the day.

The day also saw three women picking up prizes for their valiant efforts including Jan Warner-Booth, who after a fantastic tee shot on the par 3 12th hole found herself within two feet of the target to pick-up nearest the pin.

Saturday's overall winners were Steve Punter and Martin Bargery with 31 pts each; Steve also won the front nine with 18pts, second overall was Paul Fenton.

The back nine win went to Martin Lindsey with 17pts. Linsey Gage, Bob Clampett, Mike Wilkes, Paul Fenton and Barbara Shaw all came joint second on the back nine. Mike Donnahue came second on the front.

Anybody wishing to take part in the 'Saturday Circus' can do so by turning up at the Windwhistle Golf Club before 11.30am on Saturday mornings. All are welcome.

Anybody wishing to join us on Valentines' evening for a romantic four course dinner for two can do so by booking a table via the telephone on 01460 30231 or by visiting the club directly. Vegetarian options are available.

Saturday Circus Winter League table.

Current Standings: 1st Steve Punter (14 pts), 2nd Ralph Daley (10), 3rd Tony Roy (10), 4th Graham Pike (6), 5th Tim Williams (6).

Lyme Regis Ladies

with Ellie Langford

4 Clubs & Putter 9 Hole Stableford AFTER a few weeks of snow, rain and fog Lyme Regis ladies finally managed to play a competition. It may have only been over nine holes, but it was still keenly contested, with the last pair finishing just as the fog came down and closed the course.

Division 1: 1st Jane Dixon 16pts, 2nd Jill Cottrill 15pts.

Division 2: 1st Jean Moss 18pts, 2nd Val Rivers 16pts.

Rugby round-up

I, ALONG with, I suspect, many rugby followers, took a moment last week to mourn the passing of Bill MacLaren, rugby commentator par excellence; and realised that I tended to use one or two of his phrases on occasion. I remember called someone a "demented ferret" the other day. He (Bill) gave much to the game and thousands will remember his commentary with great affection.

On Saturday I ventured over to Dorchester to watch the home side come from behind to beat visitors Tatley 26-22, scoring a converted try in the final minute to do so.

HONITON 19pts BODMIN 12pts

BOTH sides were probably something below their best for this national vase competition, neither having played much rugby during the last few weeks.

The Home side were asked to play down the slope at Allhallows during the first-half and, although they imposed quite a bit of pressure, had no scores to show for it during the first quarter. In fact they lost the kicking game and conceded too many penalties early on.

Bodmin converted two of the awards, thus taking a 6-0 lead by the end of the first quarter. Honiton did fight back later in the half and regained the lead. Having scrummaged a penalty award, they pushed the visitors pack over, and back rower and skipper Jason Hannay touched down the try that Nex converted.

Bodmin came back however, more or less straight from the restart. They regained possession and their out half dropped a neat goal from some thirty yards out. This gave his side a 9-7 lead at the break and left Honiton with much to do, bearing in mind that they would face the slope in the second period.

They proceeded to do it however, and had cause to be grateful to Nex who ended the day with a one hundred per cent record in place kicks. Bodmin aided and abetted rather by giving him the opportunities, and he duly took his side into the lead within ten minutes of the restart. He kicked a couple more as the half progressed, making the visitors pay for their indiscretions, and the score stood at 16-9 before Bodmin got a score back, again via the boot. They came close to notching a second but their effort rebounded from the post and Honiton cleared upfield.

In the end it was Nex's fourth penalty of the half that completed the scoring and put Honiton's name into the hat for the next round draw, a happening that will not do too much for their fixture backlog.

HONITON JUNIORS

HONITON COLTS 5pts EXETER COLTS 50pts

THE all conquering Exeter Colts side came to Honiton and did just that, in spite of some committed resistance. Leading by 35points to nil at the halfway stage, they would have felt that a cricket score was a distinct possibility but were checked in the second half.

Ben Small, fresh back in the fold after an injury, got an unconverted try back soon after the restart, after which a concerted defensive effort, with home full-back Ollie Rice prominent, limited Exeter to just a couple of touchdowns after the break.

The visitors duly cruised to an emphatic win however, although I wonder just how much they learned.

HONITON U 16s NIL TORQUAY U 16s 27pts

ALTHOUGH they ended the day losing, this was a very useful performance by an emerging Honiton under 16 side and will give them cause for optimism.

BIDEFORD U 11s 19pts HONITON U 11s 17pts

ALTHOUGH Honiton scored three tries in the first half, two by Charlie Wright and another by Luke Chambers, one of which Wright converted, they finally lost this close encounter. The home side which had scored a converted try of their own before the break, scored two more touchdowns in the second period, and converted one of them to edge the result. Neil Parrish was made Man-of-the-Match.

SIDMOUTH U 10s NIL HONITON U 10s 5pts

HONITON won this close game by a single try to nil, scored by Oliver Perez. What really kept them ahead however was their good defending, with Sam Phillips being made Man-of-the-Match for his excellent tackling stint.

SIDMOUTH 21pts YATTON 21pts

CONDITIONS at the Blackmoor were better than they had any right to be, given the recent weather, and Sidmouth certainly started the brighter of the sides in this game that they would most certainly have targeted to win. Their pack established an early edge both tight and loose with the result that they were able to impose pressure.

This paid dividends before the game was ten minutes old. A wayward kick out of defence was run back by Dare. Derryman provided the link and Giles Dixon galloped over in the corner. More home pressure followed and a subsequent Channing penalty took the home lead to 8-0 before the end of the first quarter.

Problems with discipline then tended to re emerge and, after missing with a couple of attempts, Yatton finally landed a penalty to reduce the arrears and equalised a few minutes later when, after a successful driving maul had taken play close to the home line, one of their props got over from close range.

Sidmouth came close to scoring during the final minutes of the half, getting over the Yatton line on a couple of occasions but failing to ground the ball. Channing did kick a penalty however and gave his side a 11-8 lead at the halfway stage.

The initiative seemingly passed to the visitors in the second-half. Sidmouth's edge in the scrums disappeared and, with their lineout not functioning all that efficiently, their supply of useable set piece possession diminished.

A Yatton penalty goal again tied the scores and, although Sidmouth did regain the lead with a similar effort from Channing during one of their infrequent forays into their opponents territory, it was the visitors who continued to press. They again levelled via the boot and then took a seven point lead with 15minutes left. Their full-back joined the line between his centres, cut the defence before putting his outside centre in unopposed.

This converted try left Sidmouth "looking down the barrel" as it were, but, with a few minutes left, they were awarded a penalty. The kick rebounded from a post but a Yatton player obligingly knocked on close to his own line, giving the home side a prime attacking position.

From there they set up a series of last ditch attacks. Hannay got over but was held up. Yatton conceded penalties in profusion and eventually the referee lost patience and awarded the penalty try. Whelan converted from in front to level the scores and, although Yatton did have a chance to sneak the result, their last minute penalty kick faded just wide and Sidmouth held on.

Sidmouth would have felt that they needed to win this one, against fellow strugglers. They did not do so but should remind themselves that "half a loaf is better than no bread". It all makes for a tense and exciting final few games of the season. To the impartial observer that is.

PREVIEW

HONITON embroiled in trying to catch up on their backlog of postponed league fixtures as they are (I think it is five) have a tough one on Saturday when they entertain league Leaders TOTNES.

The South Devon side have enjoyed a most successful season thus far and, to date, remain unbeaten in the Devon League, North and East division. (Some one's got his geography wrong, and I don't think it's me!). They did come out on top in the season's earlier fixture, and by 20 points at that and I think they will win again on Saturday. It will probably be closer though.

SIDMOUTH for their part, make the long journey to ST IVES and will do well to leave the Stennack with a win. Sidmouth did win the encounter at the Blackmoor by 24-16 but St Ives, like most sides, will be a tougher proposition on their own paddock and I cannot see Sidmouth returning with anything.

As to the second sides, the Sidmouth second string will be given a hard game at the Blackmoor by their Tiverton counterparts, while the thirds have a rather easier task at Topsham seconds. Sidmouth Colts take on Exeter Saracens Colts at Sidford and will do well to win that one. Honiton seconds have a chance to get revenge after losing narrowly to Devonport Services seconds at Plymouth when they play them at Allhallows, while Honiton Colts travel to Crediton Colts, always a useful outfit.

FOOTBALL RESULTS, FIXTURES AND TABLES

Devon & Exeter League

AFTER being clobbered 6-0 by Division One leaders Seaton Town less than two months ago, Heavitree Social Utd returned the compliment in style with a stunning 7-1 victory at Wingfield Park.

The victory also edged Heavitree up into first place on goal difference, but their performance was almost perfection as they inflicted the first ever league defeat on Seaton manager Josh Stunell since he took over nearly a year ago (see match report below).

The managers re-union between Phil Margretts and Paul Ashford at Sidmouth Town started well as the vikings beat Premier visitors Clyst Valley 2-1. Andy Thompson had both goals, but Clyst were feeling they deserved a draw.

Leaders Thorverton enjoyed a 2-0 win at home to Heavitree Social Utd both goals coming in a five minute spell in the first half. Darren Osmond and an own goal gave thors the points, but Heavitree's day was marred by a sending off.

It finished 1-1 between Feniton and Wellington Town. Ollie Nott gave the Somerset club an early lead but Jamie Easterbrook levelled from close range.

MATCH REPORTS

Heavitree Social 7 Seaton Town 1
SEATON went into this game without Ollie Morgan, Miles Alphonse and both Joe Byrne and Josh French were unavailable as they were playing for Devon Under 18s, that said Seaton had enough quality on the team sheet to stretch their unbeaten run.

The Greens started well passing the ball with real intent and looking in complete control, then disaster struck after 10 minutes, 17-year-old left-back Fellingham gave away a needless foul 25-yards out wide left, Richard Phillips curled a powerful shot over the wall that flew passed the despairing dive of keeper Perham at the near post, it was a tremendous strike but the big keeper will be disappointed to have been beaten from that angle and distance.

Seaton who are not used to conceding first soon found themselves conceding a second as they continually failed to compete against a highly charged Heavitree side that were determined not to get embarrassed by the talented greens.

On the half-hour the home side scored a third against a now disinterested Seaton team. Seaton moved Fellingham into Midfield and started to create some good chances but failed to take advantage of the possession and went in at half-time 3-0 down.

Seaton came out in the second-half knowing that if they scored early and started playing as they have done in previous matches, they could stage a comeback, however that was quashed as the Heavies scored a forth that killed the game off. Seaton did manage to score a consolation goal through 18yr Old Wyatt who was the one bright hope for Seaton. Heavitree went onto to score an additional three goals and giving the lively Phillips his hat-trick.

On the day nothing went right for the greens and everything Heavitree did seemed to end up in the back of the net. Seaton Manager Joshua Stunell admitted: 'This result could prove to be of real benefit to us as our players now know that they cannot just turn up and expect teams to lie down. I was happy with the performance of Wyatt and Groves. Heavitree fully deserved the win, however 7-1 was a bit flattering. My young team will have learnt from the experience and will be eager to bounce back next week as they know they have let themselves down in a big way."

Countess Wear Dynamos 3
Offwell Rangers 2

OFFWELL travelled to top of the league Countess Wear Dynamos and returned home defeated 3-2 despite going 2-0 up after Dan Edwards superbly chipped the keeper and Euan Carnelley coolly finished a good break.

The hosts reduced the arrears five minutes before the break from the penalty spot. In the second-half Offwell created, and spurned, several very good chances before an own goal levelled things up. This gave the Dynamos confidence and they pushed forward and got the winner with 20 minutes remaining.

Hard as they tried the visitors couldn't find an equaliser and the score stayed the same.

Manager Nick Ogden said: "we battled and deserved something from the game but ultimately we tired and lost our shape in the second-half and they took full advantage. That's twice this season we have wasted a two goal lead and it's not acceptable - the players have to take responsibility for their efforts and some of them fell short of their best. Yes they (Countess Wear) are a good team but I believe we are better and I hope when they come to us we can get suitable revenge". Ogden thought Euan Carnelley had a very good game but his mom was Correy Couch.

DEVON COUNTY YOUTH

UNBEATEN Devon County under-18 League leaders Plymstock United have stretched their lead at the top. They overwhelmed Offwell Rangers, 10-1, scoring their first goal in just ten seconds.

The East Devon side did not give in easily and were only 4-0 down at the break.

They also managed to do what few other teams have done against Plymstock this season and score a goal: only the fifth against Plymstock to date.

That reply from Offwell came at 8-0, and was only their sixth in the league, but one they merited and enjoyed.

Meanwhile, Dawlish Youth have announced that they are withdrawing from the League with immediate effect. The county's youth management committee will decide what action, if any, they need to take when they meet on February 9.

Axminster Town 2

Newton Abbot Spurs 3

AXMINSTER went into this game hoping to build on their last win three weeks ago at Exeter Civil Service writes John Clements.

In heavy conditions the Tigers took the lead in the 18th minute when Richie Emmett beat two players on the edge of the box and played in his strike-partner Jamie Barfoot who rounded the goalkeeper to score.

The Spurs got on level terms on the hour when Matt Joy's run down the right ended with a cross-come-shot which sailed into the top corner from 35-yards.

With both teams now looking for the winning goal it was in the 75th minute that the visitors took the lead when defender Ian Tyson hit an unstoppable shot from 30-yards.

The Tigers pushed Olly Hightett in to the attack to try and get the equaliser and with their pressure was rewarded in the 87th minute when midfielder Alex Wheatley went on a surging run down the left, dribbled past three defenders and clipped the ball into the net to make it 2-2.

But disaster struck in the last minute when a defensive error let in striker Mardell who slotted in to snatch all three points for the Spurs.

Man-of-the-Match: Alex Wheatley. Team: Higgs, Burrough (78min Hewer) Gage, Hancock, Cowling, Galloway Tyrer (55min Vine), Wheatley, Emmett, Barfoot, Hightett. Next Saturday Axminster Home to Royal Marines KO 2-15.

Good news for the Axminster Town fans; popular Tigers' striker Terry Emmett is back in full training after breaking his leg at the end of last season. Terry's presence has been sorely missed this season, his attitude, skill and commitment is second to none.

Well worth the wait!

AFTER travelling all the way to Salisbury for the TAGB Southern Tae Kwon-Do Championships in October, Jake Norman, 15, from Millway Rise, Axminster was delighted to win Gold in the boys' blue belt heavyweight sparring category, but left the tournament empty-handed when red-faced officials informed him that they had run out of trophies!

He was told that more would be ordered and would be sent out to his instructor to pass to him.

Weeks went by, with no sign of his prize. When both the suppliers and the tae kwon-do organisation's regional office then closed down for Christmas, Jake had almost given up hope of ever receiving his trophy. He received a pleasant surprise when, in mid-January, his instructor, Mr G Waugh, informed him during a training session that, at last, he had finally received Jake's trophy, almost three months after he had won it. Jake is pictured with Mr Waugh, being belatedly presented with his trophy. He hopes to compete again in February, in the South West Championships in Paignton, but hopes that, this time, if he wins anything, he will be able to take it home with him!

Jake trains with East Devon Tae Kwon-Do, which runs classes in Colyton and Axminster. Details are available at www.eastdevontae-kwondo.com

CALYPSO CHARLIE

MARTOCK youngster Charlie Vickery, 14, has recently received confirmation that he has been selected to play in the U15s South & West region Cricket Tour to the West Indies during Easter this year.

Charlie, nephew of Axminster darts exponents Emma and Tony Young and grandson of local bowlers Brian and Jan Parsons explained: "Boys from Wales, Devon, Cornwall Somerset, Dorset, Hampshire, Wiltshire, Berkshire, Oxfordshire, Gloucestershire and Buckinghamshire were selected by their counties to attend trials. The squad of 16 has just been announced and I am delighted to be part of it."

"This is an official tour fully endorsed and supported by the England and Wales Cricket Board and by the English Schools' Cricket Association."

"During the tour, which runs from Tuesday, March 30th and returns on Thursday, April 15th we will play cricket in Barbados, Trinidad & Tobago and Guyana."

The tour includes nine matches and is designed to give us an insight into the life of a professional sportsman.

"As well as representing our country on the field, we will also be attending an evening reception by invitation of Paul Brummell, the British High Commissioner in Barbados."

"The total cost of the tour for the players and officials will be approximately £45,000. We have already received a major sponsorship contribution of £5,000 and the officials are working to raise another £8,000. The balance has to be raised by the players and their families, who are asked to contribute at least £1,900 towards the costs."

"A tour brochure will be produced with a print run of 2,000 copies which will be distributed in England and the West Indies. There is advertising space available for any local sponsors."

"So far my Somerset team mate Ali Easton, who has also been selected, and I have received a signed cricket bat from Ex-England player Marcus Trescothick which we will auction and a donation from M.J. Baker who sponsor the Somerset County 1st XI. My seven-year-old cousin Tabitha is raising money for me by selling pictures she has painted.

We plan to do a car-wash event in the staff car-parks at Yeovil District Hospital where my mum works and will be writing personally to key people both locally and nationally."

"I am very keen to raise some money by doing things that directly benefit my community. A previous member of the tour did a litter pick-up around his village and asked for donations. If anyone has any ideas on how I could help, please get in contact."

"I am well aware of how tight money is for everyone at present and I realise how lucky I am to be given this opportunity. I would like to feel that I have earned it both on and off the field."

"I do realize how very lucky I have been so far. My family work very hard to keep me at Millfield School and give me the opportunities that I am currently enjoying. I am however very aware that there a lot of others who are less fortunate."

"During our tour to the West Indies we visit Guyana which is a third world country where poverty is high. During our tour some of the local school children will come and meet us to experience talking to children from other countries."

"The boys we will be playing cricket against will have natural talent that they have developed despite often not having the luxury of owning their own cricket gear."

"We are encouraged to take any kit equipment that we have grown out of, or can acquire, to donate to the children and cricket clubs of Guyana. I am very keen to do this. I have several items of my own which I will be taking. If anyone has any cricket gear that they would like to donate I would be very grateful."

"I also intend to spend a percentage of the monies I raise to buy some new items to take out. Visiting a third world country will be a new experience for me—and I imagine a very humbling one."

"Can you help me? If you are able to offer help or any suggestions as to how I can raise some money, I would love to hear from you."

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Tarnside Kings 1 Sidbury United U13 3

A BARE to the bones Sidbury Utd travelled to Plymouth, to face Tarnside Kings in the Devon County Cup for a place in the last eight.

Sidbury got off to a flyer and found themselves 0-1 up within two minutes, when the pace of Ben Kidson surprised the Tarnside defence. Harry Wright then made it 0-2 and then had to limp off the pitch after a knock on the ankle which left Sidbury with just the 11 fit players.

A little later Connor Long pulled up with a thigh strain, but bravely battled on. Without a goalkeeper for the game left-back Cody Northcott played in goal and did a great job.

Tarnside pulled a goal back with a lovely strike from outside the box, and really pressured the Sidbury goal for the last 10 minutes of the first-half.

Rob Mansfield, Aaron Pearse, Ben Logan and the limping Long battled tirelessly and handled the pressure well.

In the second-half Sidbury were forced to change their formation, the injured Long pulled up front, Kieran Murphy dropped into left back with Scott Redman filling the left mid-field position. Midfielders Bill Reed and Hamish Culling put in very gutsy performances.

Midway through the half Jack Murrell beat his marker and played in Long who slid the ball passed the advancing keeper to restore United's two goal cushion.

Axminster U11s 8 Exmouth 1

AFTER a long lay off because of the weather, Axminster U11s took on an Exmouth side that they had beaten well at Woodberry Common, earlier in the season. However, Exmouth's 7-1 defeat of Avishayes last week suggested they would be a tougher proposition this time around.

An early break saw Tony Pinder open the scoring after just two minutes, but the visitors fought back with chances of their own in a very even first-half. Ed Hallett and Pete Smith made the margin more comfortable for the young Tigers with a couple of goals just before half-time.

The second-half saw some good pressure from Exmouth, as the Ax defence struggled to cope with another run into the box, and conceded a penalty that was dispatched with a blistering shot from Exmouth's Sam Carmody.

Tigers stepped up a gear, and a brace from Jamie Jobson, goals from defender Jamie Tait and Tony Pinder put the match beyond the visitors. Ed Hallett slotted in his second, in the final seconds after a fine assist by captain Alfie Brooker.

East Devon Short Mat Bowls

With Chris Young

Back to normal this week with teams able to venture out in the Evening where in Division One there were two draws and one win. Awliscombe travelled to win by 6-2 while Musbury travelled twice to share the points, first at Beer and then at West Hill. The relative positions in that division stay the same though Musbury's second place is now based only on shots.

In Division Two Colyton confirmed their leadership by winning 8-0 with a substantial shot difference, Membury moved within striking range of a promotion place with their 7-1 win.

In the afternoon wins for Beer, 6-2, and Seaton Cliff B, 5-3, leave Beer top but Seaton moving up to second place. Other winners, Chard B 8-0 and St Teresa's 6-2 away from home, each gain a place to 4th and 6th respectively. In Division Two Sidford were hosts to Musbury and their point gains them one place; Lyme Regis travelled to gain both points, 5-3 and also move up one place.

In the knock-out Beer were hosts to Colyton and won 6-2 in the first leg of their semi-final.

Looking ahead the invitations for the Pairs Event, and the Terry Trott Trophy at Donyatt have gone out. If your club has not received one please let me know. I look forward to meeting you or your colleagues there.

AS gold stays high, there are many companies advertising on TV asking for you to post your gold. Some have even hired celebrities to try and convince the public to trust sending gold by post. Most of these companies will not give a price per gramme over the phone, and you don't know what you're getting until the cheque eventually arrives. In fact it's almost impossible to actually get to talk to anyone, they just have an automated phone system asking for your name and address. Be very careful, many pay very low rates.
